Milan, June 19.

General Count Stampa, who was sent to Genoa by the Regency of this Duchy to compliment the Princess of Modena, performed his Commission there on the 6th Instant. On the 12th Instant, the Princess was met on the Frontier of this State by the Regiment of Dragoons of Walmerode, and that of Carabineers of Sulzbach, commanded by Major Don Carlo Croce, who conducted her to Tortona, where she was saluted with the Discharge of the Artillery and the small Arms of the Garrison. Having dined there in publick, she proceeded to Voguera, where she lay that Night. Count Colloredo, Imperial Governour of this State, accompanied by General Visconti, and other Officers, who had been to view the Fortifications and Garrisons of Pavia and Tortona, went on this Occasion to Voguera to see the Princess, and to compliment her on the Emperour's part. On the 13th her Highness was conducted by the said two Imperial Regiments to Stradella, where she lay that Night. On the 14th in the Morning she arrived at Castell-Giovanni in the Duke of Parma's Dominions, where the Imperial Regiments took Leave of her Highness, who gave Presents to the Officers as well as the Soldiers. On the 14th she arrived at Placentia, and proceeded for Modena by the Way of Parma.

London, June 30.

Yesterday arrived the Mail from France of Saturday.

From the Paris Gazette.

Paris, July 6. It is adviced from Modena of the 22d past, that the Duke of Modena, and the Hereditary Prince, with his Brother, went to meet the Princess of Modena on the Frontier of Reggio, attended by two Regiments of Cavalry, one being Carabineers, and the other Cuirassiers, making together about 4000 Men, with all the Nobility on Horseback, and 16 Coaches drawn by six Horses each. The Princess arrived at Modena the 21st in the Evening, the whole Town being illuminated, and several Discharges of the Artillery were made from the Citadel. Upon her Arrival, the Infantry of the Garrison were under Arms, ranged in two Lines along the Streets where the Princess passed as far as the Palace, who gave several Volleys of small Arms. The Bishop of Modena gave the Nuptial Benediction to the Prince and Princess. The following Day the Princess went to the Cathedral, with the Princess of Brunswick, (Dowager of the late Duke Frederick of Brunswick-Hanover) and her three Daughters the three Princesses of Modena, the present Duke's Daughters; high Mass was celebrated there, after which Te Deum was sung, and there was afterwards a splendid Entertainment, and in the Evening a great Ball, at which several Strangers were present.

From the Gazette a-la-Main.

Paris, July 6. The Instrument of Accommodation of the Bishops about the Constitution is actually in the Press in the Royal Printing-House, it is to be published with the King's Letters Patents register'd in Parliament, but not before the Return of the Courier who has been sent to Rome with a Copy of it. The Body of Doctrine composed by the Cardinal de Noailles is also printing, together with a Treatise of his relating to that Affair. The Mareschal Duke de Villeroy, the King's Governour, has been dangerously ill of the Gout; though he has been somewhat better since, he is not thought quite past Danger. On the 4th Instant, M. de Chateauneuf was received Provost of the Merchants, not without great Opposition from the Eschevins and the Body of the Merchants, who pretend that none but a Frenchman by Birth may be put at their Head, whereas M. de Chateauneuf was born in Savoy; some of them have been taken into Custody upon that Account.

Paris, July 6. A Report was current here on the 2d and 3d Instant, that an Arrêt would be published for the India Company's exchanging the old Actions, which are fixed at 9000, for new ones, which after the Additional Subscription, enacted by a late Arrêt, are to be of 12000, at the rate of 4 old Actions to 3 new ones: Hereupon the former rose to 5000, but no such Arrêt appearing on the 4th Instant, they fell again to 4650. The Exchange for Paper Trade is to be removed on the 15th Instant from the Place of Vendome which looks like a Camp by Reason of the Tents pitched there, to the Hotel de Soissons, where they are demolishing the Gardens in order to build Booths, and prepare other Conveniencies for those Persons that shall resort thither with their Paper Effects. The great Lewis-d'Ors having been frequently sold in publick for the Value of 150 Livres in Bank-Bills, this has given an Occasion to an Arrêt of the Court of the Mints, bearing Date the 3d Instant, forbidding the selling or buying of Gold and Silver Species or Bullion at an higher Rate than is ordered by the Edicts, Declarations, and Arrêts, on Pain for the first Offence of the Pillory, Confiscation of the said Species or Bullion, and a Fine of double the Value of them; and in case of a repeated Offence, on Penalty of the Gallies. The present Circumstances of Affairs have produced such a strange Revolution, that Tradesmen had rather give Credit than take their Payment, and that Debtors in general are in a more favourable Condition than the Creditors. The Jewellers not only keep their Jewels, but even purchase them of rich Stockjobbers who sell them at a much higher Rate than they bought them, though they thought they gave then above one Third of the Value of former Times for them. But an Arrêt of the Council of State dated the 4th Instant, is to put a Stop to this Commerce also, which is thereby declared prejudicial to the State, by causing the Exportation of the Species out of the Kingdom, in bringing in precious Stones bought up at an excessive Price. Wherefore the Prohibition of wearing Diamonds monds, Pearls, or precious Stones, enacted by the Act of the 4th of February last is renewed, all the Permissions granted since, are recalled, and it is ordered besides, that none of his Majesty's Subjects whosoever, shall keep or buy any, unless it be for exporting them within a Month's Time, on Penalty of Confiscation and a Fine of 10000 Livers, after which Term they are likewise to be confiscated: All Goldsmiths, Jewellers, and the like Persons, shall give in within three Days after the Publication of the said Arrêt, an Account of all the Diamonds, Pearls, and precious Stones they have in their Custody, on the like Penalty: His Majesty's Subjects shall bring into the Kingdom the Money they have received for Jewels sold in Foreign Parts, on the Penalties ordered by the Ordinance of the 20th of last Month, for recalling their Money from abroad; only Church Ornaments are excepted in this Arrêt.

The Commissioners for managing His Majesty's Stamp Duties have thought fit to give Notice, That by a Clause in an Act of the last Sessions of Parliament for laying a Duty upon Wrought Plate, &c. All Masters and Mistresses who have formerly omitted to pay His Majesty's Duties on Monies given, paid, or contracted for, with Clerks and Apprentices within the respective Times limited by the several Acts of Parliament in that Case made, are acquitted and discharged of and from all Penalties incurred by such Omissions, provided they pay the said Duties on or before the 29th Day of September 1720. And for preventing the like Omissions for the future, the said Commissioners do hereby further give Notice, that the Times limited by the Act of Parliament which grants the said Duties for Payment thereof, are within one Month after the Dates of such Indentures or Contracts as are executed within the Limits of the Bills of Mortality, and within two Months after the Dates of such Indentures or Contracts as are executed elsewhere throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain. And that on Neglect of such Payment within the respective Times above-mentioned, every Master or Mistress so neglecting, incurs a Penalty of 50 l. with Cost of Suit; and the Clerk or Apprentice is made incapable of exercising the intended Trade or Employment, or of being made free of any City, Corporation, or Company, and the Indentures and Contracts are also in such Case void and of no Effect. The said Commissioners do further give Notice, that all Persons neglecting or refusing to comply with the Terms of the said Acts of Parliament, will be prosecuted for the same.
